Barroso Lithium Project Update

Court Ruling on the Action Brought Against the Republic of Portugal by Parish Council

Savannah Resources plc, the European lithium development company, provides an update on legal action brought against the Republic of Portugal by the Parish of Covas do Barroso (the "Parish Council") which was announced on 4 February 2022. The Mirandela Fiscal and Administrative Court (the "Court") has ruled that the Portuguese State and the Ministry of Economy are not legitimate parties in this lawsuit and, therefore, acquitted the defendants (the Portuguese State, the Ministry of Economy) and counter-interested party (Savannah) of all requests made by the Parish Council. As a result, this lawsuit will be extinguished if the Parish Council does not file an appeal within 30 days.
